4 Community Nonprofits Gain Brand Exposure and Approximately $4000 (total) in Cash and In-kind Donations

Team Kids has created a model that strengthens the young person, teachers shared values such as leadership and tolerance, and improves the community in which these young people live. – M. Beeler, America’s Promise

Educators Broaden their Perceptions of Kids as Community Assets & Leaders

✔ Teachers and principals unanimously agree, “Elementary school kids can make a quantifiable positive impact in their community.”

✔ The kids really proved themselves to the adults involved in the program. – School Principal

✔ I think the fact that you do the planning during lunch is very successful. It really got teachers to buy in to the program. They are asked to do so much, and so having the program run during lunch is incredible.

✔ The leadership piece is really important, the way it’s designed…it draws out those kids as leaders.
